CEMETERIES of BENTON COUNTY, ARKANSAS

VOLUME II FALL 1974

V. 2

Copyright Northwest Arkansas Genealogical Society 1974

The Northwest Arkansas Genealogical Society, whose goal is to gather, preserve, and perpetuate records of our pioneer ancestors, presents our second volume of Benton County cemetery records. Cemeteries from all sections of the county are included, and it is our earnest desire to record every cemetery in Benton County before some are lost forever.

Anyone having knowledge of burials where there are no stones may contact a member of N.A.G.S., and the information will be gratefully accepted and placed in future volumes.

We strived for accuracy, but some of the stones are very dim and there is always a chance for error. The spelling is as we read it, though it seemed unusual in some instances. We would appreciate any corrections or additions.

Our cover is a map of Benton County locating major roads and cities, and indicating the sites of cemeteries in the volume. A geographical location is also given at the beginning of each cemetery list, and the name or names of those who copied that cemetery is usually given. A list of abbreviations used is given on a separate page.

To all those great volunteers who climbed fences, waded weeds and briars, acquired ticks and chiggers, avoided snakes, and ran from cattle to copy tombstones - our thanks. To all those great volunteers who took those records and compiled them into this volume - our thanks.

GOAD SPRINGS CEMETERY

Located SW of Lowell, on the Cave Springs road to 1st cross road; turn left about 1/4 mile to cemetery.

Copied by Jessie Cowan and Bobbie Colville

The Cowan, Hubbard, and Colville families came from Tenn. about 1829 or 1830 bringing livestock, feed and seeds by wagon train. The Hubbards and Cowans homesteaded SW of Lowell around Goad Springs. When Hubbards sold out, the cemetery and school were donated to the community. The Robert Cowan family homesteaded south of Goad Springs near the Callahan Mt. Story told to Jessie Cowan by John Gillespie Cowan's granddaughter, Willie Reed Pond.

FALLING SPRINGS CEMETERY

Located about 4 1/2 miles N.E. of Decatur.
Copied by Ruth Wasson, Mrs. Dave Whiteside, Mrs. Iva Hazle, and Mrs. Calvin Blankenship, April 1974. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson gave Mrs. Wasson seventy nine names from a cemetery book kept by them and by Mrs. Johnson's Mother before her.
These take the place of limestones for which we had no names.
We do not have dates for them.

? CEMETERIES

Located on the farm of Sherman Dellinger near Springtown, Ar. No stones are left, story told by Mr. Dellinger's father. The men of the family were gone to the Civil War. A roving band of bushwhackers came through the country and killed the women. Neighbor women came in and buried the murdered women in a field near the house. Mr. Dellinger says that as far back as he can remember the field was called "The Graveyard Field". No one seems to know the names nor how many were buried there.

Located on Dee Jones Property, Rt. 2; Gentry.

There are many unmarked graves; other graves marked with brown rough sandstones; some marked with just smooth, oblong, flat white stone, level with ground. A few years ago this cemetery was vandalized and some stones destroyed. A number of stones molded from clay, all the same with same marking, but no dates or names. See diagram.

*Near the Murray stone is another one which says "Mother", another says "Baby", and two small stones. Goodspeed's says wife of Nathaniel Stringfield was Fidella Stivers. A large slab about 8' x 4' - no name. Feel sure many more stones are there, but covered by vinca and brush.
